GARFIELD'S ELOQUENCE.

Many are familiar with the language uttered by General Garfield when he quelled a mob in New York, but to those who are not, the following may prove interesting:

When the terrible news of the assassination of Lincoln was flashed over the wires to New York, a great crowd of citizens, numbered by thousands, gathered around the Merchants' Exchange. One of the multitude indiscreetly proclaimed: "Lincoln ought to have been shot long ago." An eye witness afterwards related the scene, how the spectators, their blood boiling, and with threats of vengeance, seized him. The prospect was that the office of the World, a disloyal journal, and some prominent sympathizers of the South, would be swallowed up in the raging sea of passion. A large man pressed his way to the steps of the building. Few knew him as he raised his right arm toward heaven, and, in a clear, distinct voice, said:

"Fellow citizens: The clouds of darkness are around about Him. His position is the dark waters and thick clouds of the skies! Justice and judgment are the habitation of His throne. Mercy and truth shall go before His face. Fellow citizens, God reigns, and the government at Washington still lives!" The speaker was General Garfield. The writer continues: "As the boiling wave subsides and settles to the sea when some strong wind beats it down, so the tumult of the people sank and became still. It was a triumph of eloquence, a flash of inspiration such as seldom comes from any man, and to not more than one in a century. Webster, nor Choate, nor Everett, nor Seward, ever reached it. The man for the crisis had come, and his words were more potent than Napoleon's guns at Paris."

A NATION'S GRIEF.

The following little poem was written by a well-known Washoe bard. Those who don't recall the style will be able to translate the initials:

All o'er our broad land to-night,
The mournful news has spread;
And the sad words pass from lip to lip,
"Our President is dead."

While the bells from each steeple top, Toll out with solemn sound;
And the hush'd, and quiet streets, Bespeak the grief profound.

Every eye is damp with tears,
In mourning all unite;
No home within our country's bounds That does not feel the blight.

From the heights of human glory,
From the place so justly won;
The angel of death has taken America's noblest son.

Friends around his casket are weeping, O'er the land a pall is spread;
While a nation sighs, and whispers,
"Our President is dead."

But while we mourn the awful loss, We feel that God knows best;
And though we'll miss him from his place,
His soul in peace will rest.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The New York Times says: The revolt against the Republican machine in this State, as engineered by Conkling and his assistants, seems to be growing in strength. Following close upon the defeat of the Conkling delegates in the Second District of Wayne and First District of Washington counties, comes the news of the complete discomfiture of the machine in Broome and Suffolk counties. Conkling's much vaunted success in carrying a few wards of the city of Utica, may or may not procure him election as a delegate to the State Convention. That question will be decided at the Convention of the First Oneida District.

Mr. A. B. Henderson, managing editor of the Call, takes a half-column double-leaded to explain why he did not turn his column rules on Monday last. Mr. Alex. B. Henderson succeeds in proving that he was guilty of a stupendous blunder. If any country publisher could buy Mr. Henderson's ability for what it is worth and sell the article for what that doughty little man thinks it worth, that country publisher might pay off the National debt and retire. Mr. Henderson is a literary tin horn, and would find his proper sphere in the capacity of a funnel for the manufacture of wind pudding.

Should the route at present under examination by the managers of the Eureka and Colorado railroad be adopted, about forty miles of the line will be located in Elko county.—Elko Independent.

What good would it do you? Eureka would take it away as soon as the Legislature met.—Reno Journal.

It is some satisfaction to help a poor neighbor when he gets in a tight place. The salary law has utterly ruined our friends of the base range, and a few miles of railroad would make but little difference to us.—Elko Independent.

Ex-President Hayes is quoted by the Cleveland Herald as saying: "My life was threatened many times. I have a large package of letters labeled 'Threats of Assassination,' but I frequently walked alone for exercise around several squares in Washington, and faced boldly on all occasions where danger was suspected, against the advice of others. The ushers would generally detect crazy persons and turn them away; but one morning a man came to me and demanded a deed for the land of the Pacific Railway, and had to be put out."

"Primeval California" is the theme of two Californians for an illustrated paper to be published in the October Scribner. The writer is Mr. Charles Warren Stoddard, and the artist Mr. Julian Rix. The region described is among the red woods of Sonoma county. Some of the best wood-cuts in the article are by young men who last year competed with "first work" for the Scribner prize for wood-engraving—which, by the way, is to be continued under The Century Magazine.

Beecher says that three-fourths of the inhabitants of heaven are women, and it is only fair to give his testimony for what it is worth.

Dennis Kearney has a sore throat and cannot harraugue the sand lot at present. Another beauty of our glorious climate.

Rossi, the tragedian, is the subject of a biographical and critical sketch in the October Scribner, by Junius Henri Browne.

Never borrow money to speculate on.

Senator Fair on President Arthur. A Chronicle reporter last evening asked Senator Fair's opinion of the new President.

"Mr. Arthur," said the Senator, "impressed me as being a sensible business man and a gentleman of decided ability. He will, I think, act wisely and endeavor to carry out the ideas of the late President. I don't imagine that he will attempt any changes in the Cabinet or elsewhere. In fact I don't see how he can if he wishes to retain the confidence of his party."

"Don't you think his friendship with Senator Jones will after a time induce him to take him into the Cabinet?"

"Possibly; it's natural enough for a man to remember those friends who stood by him."

BY TELEGRAPH.

The Assassin.

WASHINGTON, Sep. 23. Guiteau evidently does not dread his trial half so much as the vengeance of the populace. He has fretted himself sick in apprehension of mob violence. He has been put on the sick list by the jail physician, and asks the guards and warden every time he sees them, day and night, whether there is any indication of a purpose to attack the jail to take him out. He seems to entertain some hope of escaping with a light penalty if he can escape the popular indignation.

The San Francisco Cortège.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sep. 23. Col. Preston, Chief Aid to the Grand Marshal for Monday's funeral procession, is busily at work with his staff, arranging his line and selecting the route. He is literally overwhelmed with applications from associations desiring to participate, and expects that 35,000 men will be in the ranks. Forty prominent gentlemen, including Senators Miller and Farley, and Senator Ferry, of Michigan, have been invited to act as pall bearers.

I. O. O. F.

Members of Truckee Lodge, No. 14, and Reno Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., are requested to attend a special meeting to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at the hall of Truckee Lodge, No. 14, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the funeral ceremonies of our late President, James A. Garfield, a special dispensation for this purpose having been granted by Grand Master R. Kirwan. By order of the N. G. of both Lodges.

Decorations.

The ladies met to-day at Reform Club Hall and selected Mrs. B. F. Leete President, after which they adjourned to the Theater for the purpose of draping it in mourning. They request the GAZETTE to say that they will complete the decoration to-morrow immediately after the morning services at the churches.

Running Race.

Bradley and McInnis are not yet satisfied which has the best horse, and another match was arranged for to-day at the race track. McInnis' Kittie Pease against Bradley's Ballot Box, single dash of one mile for $100 a side. McInnis won the last event, and the race to-day created considerable interest. Ballot Box won, time 1:55.

Wadsworth's Celebration.

The citizens of Wadsworth met last evening and resolved to properly observe the funeral day of the late President Garfield. The exercises will consist of a procession, music, an oration, etc. Geo. Gregg will be Grand Marshall of the procession, and Dr. Scott of Reno will deliver the address.

Washoe Bullion Tax.

The tax on the net proceeds of the mines in this county for the quarter ending June 30th, amounts to only $42.75. This is taxed against the Washoe and Ophir Tailings Company, which was assessed at $1,858.88 net. This is a small beginning, but who knows that it may not amount to $42,000 yet.

Choice Coffees.

A Laigneau, of 142 South C street, Virginia City, was in town to-day. He is a wholesale and retail dealer in green, roasted and ground coffee, ground and whole spices, tea, chocolate, cocoa, etc. The merchants of Reno will find it to their advantage to favor Mr. Laigneau with their orders.

Boy Drowned.

This morning a boy, name unknown, fell from the bridge at Union Mills into the Truckee. He was picked up at Boca an hour afterward, dead. The parties who took the body from the river could give no information in regard to its identity.

A Tucson, A. T., dispatch says: It now looks as if the Apache war had collapsed. Advices from San Carlos would indicate that nearly enough hostiles have come into the Agency and given themselves up to make up the number hitherto reported absent. Nothing has been heard from Colonel Carr since the 20th, but it is not believed he will encounter any hostiles. Yesterday was ration day, and over 10,000 pounds of beef were issued.

At Las Vegas, N. M., September 19th, Thomas Duffie, a notorious desperado, while attempting to escape from jail, was shot and killed by the guard.

The Corner.

The old Cookes corner, which has always been a central point from which the business of Reno radiated, is now occupied by Lewis and Dealey.
The business is conducted by Gus Lewis while Dealey remains at his well-known resort in Carson. There are men in Washoe who have lived here ninety years, and Gus Lewis was foreman of the fire company in Carson when they arrived. Gus invented the Babcock fire extinguisher, the patent copper cooler, the Carson Mint, the Carson Appeal and other useful inventions. Go around and see him.

$5,000,000 INJUNCTION.

The Nevada and Oregon Board of Directors the Victims.

On the 12th of September certain stockholders of the Nevada and Oregon Railroad Co., who claim to have furnished over ninety-nine per cent. of the money used in the construction of the railroad and other expenses, became dissatisfied with certain members of the Board of Directors, in the way they were conducting the business, and called a meeting of the stockholders for the 27th instant, for the purpose of removing by vote of the stockholders the directors of the corporation, and for the further purpose of electing in the same manner the successors of such of the directors as may be removed at such meeting.

On the 15th of September, at a meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the Board issued to what purported to be themselves, 50,000 shares of the capital stock for a par value of five million dollars. As they voted this stock to themselves without paying a dollar on it, Col. Moore claims that the issue was irregular, and thinks that their purpose was to control the meeting of the stockholders, and perpetuate themselves in power and on his complaint against the N.
& O. R. R. Co., and the above referred to Directors, Hon. Judge Rising, of the First Judicial District Court, of the State of Nevada, issued at Virginia on September 23rd, the following Injunction:

In the District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Storey.
Thomas Moore, Plaintiff, vs. Nevada and Oregon Railroad Company—E.
D. Wheeler, Trenmor Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland, Defendants.

To Nevada and Oregon Railroad Company—E. D. Wheeler, Trenmor
Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland:

The plaintiff in the above cause having commenced an action in the District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Storey, against the said defendants, requiring them to refrain from certain acts in said complaint, and hereinafter more particularly mentioned on reading the said complaint in said action, duly verified by the oath of said plaintiff, and it satisfactorily appearing therefrom to me that it is a proper case for an injunction, and that sufficient grounds exist therefor and the necessary undertaking having been given, it is therefore ordered by me, the Judge of the said District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Nevada in and for the said County of Storey, that until further order in the premises you, the said Nevada and Oregon Railroad Company, your officers and agents, do absolutely refrain from transferring upon the books of said Company any certificate or certificates of stock issued to the defendants, E. D. Wheeler, Trenmor Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland on or about the 15th day of September, A. D. 1881, by said Company, the same being certificates representing 12,500 shares assigned to each of said co-defendants, E.
D. Wheeler, Trenmor Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland, on or about the date last aforesaid, by said Company, and you, the said Company, refrain from issuing any stock except paid up stock, and you, the said defendant, E. D. Wheeler, Trenmor Coffin, James McMechan and John Sunderland, and all your counsellors, attorneys, solicitors and agents, and all others acting in aid or assistance of you, and each and every of you, do absolutely refrain from selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of said certificates or any of them, and that you, and each of you, and each of your counsellors, attorneys, solicitors and agents, and all others acting in aid or assistance of you and every one of you do desist and refrain from using or voting upon said certificates, or any thereof, at the meeting of the stockholders of said Company, called by Thomas Moore and Frank Field Fowler, stockholders of said Company, as provided for in sections 5, 6 and 7 of the Act of the Legislature of the State of Nevada entitled an Act to provide for the incorporation of Railroad Companies, and the management of the affairs thereof and other matters relating thereto, approved March 22nd, 1865, at the office of said Company at Reno, in the county of Washoe, State of Nevada, on Tuesday, the 27th day of September, 1881, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of removing the Directors of said Company, and for the purpose of electing in the same manner the successors of such of the Directors as may be removed, and do you, the said Company, your officers and agents, absolutely refrain from receiving, counting or allowing any vote upon any of said 50,000 shares of stock or certificates of stock issued in lieu thereof upon a transfer from your said co-defendants, or either of them.

Too Many Holes in the Skimmer.

Everybody knows Farmer Treadway, and that he is originally itself.
Concerning the attempt of the Nevada Bank to dispossess him of his old home, the following conversation took place:
"Well, Tread, you're still on the ranch?"
"Thar's where I'm campin', my son."
"Do you think you'll stay there?"
"Well, I'll tell you, my son. I've canvassed the proposition purty well, an' I think I will."
"Heard you got married and filed a declaration of homestead?"
"K rect. The fact is, my son, the boys have been canvassing their suit agin, an' they find more holes in the skimmer than they thought for."

It is Easy to be Happy.

One of the favorite Sunday amusements of the sporting fraternity in a neighboring town, is to throw a bright two-bit piece in a big water trough that stands in the street, and get Indians to try to pick it up with their teeth, after their hands are tied behind them. Last Sunday one old buck got so excited that he fell into the trough, and his plunging and kicking afforded great amusement until it began to be realized that he was drowning, and he was hauled out just in time. The San Francisco Report is requested not to head this item "Sunday Amusements in Nevada," because it happened over the line, in California.

A Card.

To THE PUBLIC:—Mrs. Ackley, one of my pupils and a very worthy lady and of exceptionally good character, opened a writing school at the old school house last evening. Mothers can rest assured that their daughters will be as safe, and as carefully looked after while under Mrs. Ackley's watchful eye as they would at home. I hope the good people of Reno will encourage Mrs. Ackley, and give her a large class. CHARLES McHENRY BUTTS.

Still We Go.

On Wednesday evening General Evans was married, at the residence of M. C. Lake, by Rev. Mr. Scott, to Mrs. Susan Elliot; no cards.

Dog Doings.

Judge Cossit says that "Centy" is the smartest dog up to date. Says the Judge: "I always feed Centy at night, and he has been in the habit of laying by a portion of it for breakfast.
The cats have found his hiding place, and last night when I ordered Centy to bed, he went out and brought in what he had saved for breakfast.
Wanted me to put it away, you see."

George Becker has a dog that always lies down in the middle of the floor to be stepped over.

"He knows better," says George,
"but his memory is defective. You stepped over, knows he wouldn't be noticed. His name is Prominence.

and tastefully draped in black; Miss Quaife has arranged music for the occasion, and a memorial sermon will be preached by the rector. Those services are eminently appropriate and should be attended by all.

Charley Swan killed himself at Butte, M. T., last week with laudanum. A man named Phillips was killed on Willow Creek, M. T., last week while hauling logs.

Last week at Helena, M. T., two convicts named Melvin and Miller attacked Witter, their guard, and overpowering him, took his pistol from him and made their escape.

News has just been received from the Camp Thomas, Arizona, Agency that Major Sanford and command have had a fight with the hostiles.

A shocking accident lately occurred at Big River, Medocino county, to an old gentleman named Charles Cavanaugh. He was standing near a car filled with lumber, and the whole load fell off and crushed his legs.

General Carr has reached Sanchez village and found no hostiles. He moves on toward Cibola at once. Sanchez, one of the leaders of the hostiles, has come into the Agency at San Carlos, and is under the protection of Agent Tiffany. The same old story seems about to be repeated. The Indians murder and pillage, and then when troops are sent out to punish them they fly to their asylums, the reservations, and are received and protected.
